LOCAL NEWS.

If you see it in the Townsman, it's news to be relied upon; if it is news and so, you'll see it in the Townsman.

J. C. Greenway, O. Lindenberg and J. Wentworth have been elected managers of the track team at Phillips Academy.

A sketch of the life of Alden P. White, the Republican candidate for District Attorney, will be found on Page 2 to-day.

Auction sale of household goods at the Benjamin Boynton home to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Joseph Sykes, the well known young comedian, is to sing at the Sandford, Me., Opera House to-morrow.

The house occupied by Stephen Jackson on Maple Avenue is being painted by S. A. Swanton.

The recent November Club theatricals for the benefit of the Boys' Club netted about $40 for that organization.

Mrs. Walter Smith of Beverly, formerly of this town, has been visiting friends here.

Concert and ball of the Andover Social Club in the Town Hall this evening. Andover Band Orchestra furnishes music.

J. W. Barnard returned this week from a ten days' trip through Vermont and Canada.

Remember that tickets for the "Deer-trick Skule" go on sale at the Andover Bookstore next Tuesday morning.

"Deer-trick Skule" at the Town Hall next Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Consult the "Pony" for the program.

Twang, driven by J. H. Richardson, won third money at the Brockton fair yesterday in the 2.19 class.

The crowded condition of pupils at the John Doye School has necessitated the transferring of Miss Dean's class to the Stowe School.

A new mill is to be erected by the Arlington Mills corporation, which, it is said, will be the largest of its kind in the world.

It is expected that the basement of St. Augustine's Church will be finished the first part of November, and some time during that month a fair will be held.

Driscoll's new hardware store in Musgrove Block was opened to the public this week. It is a very neat establishment.

The Wentworth boys, who we stated last week had been sent to their native home in Hiram, Me., are reported to have escaped their guardians and to have arrived back in Lawrence last Friday.

Mrs. William Barnett and daughter Katherine are to rent their house on High Street and are now making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Higgins, Chestnut Street.

A. W. Caldwell is to occupy the cottage on Maple Avenue belonging to L. H. Eames. The Desmond family, who have been living there, have moved to Lawrence.

District Deputy Charles H. Littlefield of the Tenth Masonic District will make an official visitation to St. Matthews Lodge of this town, Monday evening, Oct. 14.

Dea. and Mrs. Geo. Gould are to spend the winter with Mrs. Gould's son, H. C. Brown, at Melrose. Mr. Gould's house on the hill will be occupied during their absence by Geo. W. W. Dove.

By an error last week it was stated that Wm. McTernan had sold his house on Chestnut Street. He is building on Chestnut Street and John McCarthy has the foundation well along.

The meetings of the Primary Teachers' Union open to-morrow afternoon at the Lawrence Street Church, Lawrence. The annual business will occur from 3 to 4, and at the latter time Rev. M. B. Pratt will address the Union.

Miss Caroline D. Reed will soon reopen her classes in dancing for children, for both beginners and advanced pupils. Instruction will also be given to private pupils. These classes will be held at the November Club House. Further details are given in the notice in our advertising column. Miss Reed's dancing classes for the students of Phillips Academy will open as usual at the foot ball season.

The question is being frequently asked, What is to be done with the proceeds of the Village School? The expense of its production having already been provided for, the entire proceeds of the sale of tickets will be devoted to the local work of the King's Daughters, with the possible exception of a small additional contribution being sent toward the bed in the Free Hospital for women in Boston.

$4000 of the $5000 needed for their bed have already been secured. Town Hall, Friday, Oct. 11, 7:45 o'clock. Tickets, 50 and 35 cents for reserved seats. General admission, 25 cents.

The Misses Gile have moved into their Florence Street cottage.

John Trout won the 2.24 trotting race at Concord, N. H. Wednesday with Speedwell.

The new date of the Juvenile Missionary Society Fair at the West Parish Church, is Wednesday, Oct. 9th.

The annual convention of Essex County school teachers will be held at Salem, Friday, Oct. 25.

Mrs. C. S. Woodwell of Morton Street has gone to Pine Brook, Morris County, N. J. for a visit.

Miss Helen Chamberlain is to read a paper on Spain at the first meeting of the Lawrence Woman's Club this month and will also render Spanish Songs.

The family of the late Mr. Houghton, who have been at Mr. Miffin's place for the summer, returned to Cambridge on Tuesday last.

Quite a large number of Andover people attended the exercises of the 250th Anniversary of the old North Church at North Andover Wednesday.

Architect Regan has prepared plans for a new house for P. J. Hannon to be built on the lot recently purchased at the corner of Elm and Florence Streets.

The Andover Grange received the Granger prize of $15 for the best display in the great civic and trades procession at Lowell Wednesday, the second day of the celebration of Merchants week.

The Nolan estate at the corner of Main and Pearson Streets, consisting of a cottage and two tenement house, has been sold by Real Estate Agent Rogers to Frederic W. P. O'Nash, who has been living in Frye Village.

The second service on Sundays at Christ Church will hereafter be at 4.30 P.M., and will consist of evening prayer with a short sermon. There will be an organ concert for a quarter of an hour before each service, to which all are invited.

A sneak thief has been again at work in the house of Miss Carter on Main St. A gold watch and chain has been stolen from a lady residing in the family. Suspicion points very strongly to the one who had a hand in stealing the money which was taken from the same house some months ago.

The Phillips Academy base-ball interest have suffered by the decision of Sedgwick, who was elected captain for the coming year, to leave school. He has entered Tufts College, where he is to take a special course in Biology and Chemistry, preparatory to studying medicine. Barton, last year's first baseman, has been elected captain.

Foot-Ball.

The Phillips team handled the Bridge-water Normal School eleven easily last Saturday afternoon, and at the end of a twenty-minute game the score was 18 to 0. The visitors presented about as heavy a team as Andover, but they did not play together and could not prevent the Phillips boys from penetrating all parts of their line.

Andover played with a dash that was interesting to watch. The fumbling was less than in former games and there was a marked improvement all round. Goodwin's half-back play was again a feature and he made all three touch-downs. If the team continues to improve as much as it has, it should make a creditable showing.

Two good games will occur to-morrow and next Wednesday, Tufts playing on the former day and Bowdoin on the latter.

The game scheduled for Oct. 16 with Groton has been changed to St. Mark's School.

The Phillips eleven kept up their good work Wednesday by defeating the Boston College team 22 to 0 in thirty minutes. The score would have been 4 and perhaps 6 larger, if there had been a second more to play. Time was called with the ball right on the line. The visitors presented a heavier rush line than Andover, but the Phillips rushers played steady and held well when their opponents had the ball, and repeatedly opened up big holes when their backs were running. Douglass, who took Goodwin's place at half-back, played a great game, his 50-yard run for a touch-down being the star play. Butterfield also played a good rushing game. The showing of the whole team was very encouraging and in the game to-morrow against Tufts, Andover will endeavor to beat Exeter's record of Wednesday, when Tufts won 20 to 0.

Meetings of the Registrars of Voters.

The Board of Registrars of Voters have named the following dates for meetings for those desirous of becoming voters: At the Town Clerk's office, Oct. 7, 11, 16 and 21, from 7.30 to 9.30 P. M., and on Saturday, Oct. 26, from 12 M. to 10 P. M., at the old school house in Ballardvale, Oct. 14 and 23, from 7.30 to 9.30 P. M.

Dancing Classes.

Miss McLawlin and Miss Meldrum, having prepared themselves to teach dancing, are to open a children's class, Oct. 19, at 2 P. M. in Musgrove Block, with Mrs. William G. Goldsmith, Mrs. Charles A. Booth, Mrs. Hazlewood as matrons. Also a class for adults Oct. 21 at 7.30 P. M. Further particulars will be given by Miss Edith McLawlin or Miss Susie Meldrum.

New Hose Wagon for Fire Department.

Yesterday afternoon Driver Frank M. Smith brought from Lawrence the new hose wagon for the fire department. It takes the place of the former cumbersome hose reel, which had seen its most useful days. The new wagon is of a late pattern, similar to that of Essex 4 of Lawrence, and was manufactured by J. W. Farnham and Son of that city. It is a handsome vehicle and weighs just 1800 pounds, whereas the old reel was much heavier and not nearly as convenient for the work required.

The old reel was not an entire loss, for the wheels were used on the new wagon. It is a needed and valuable addition to the department.

Odd Fellows Social.

The Odd Fellows commemorated the first year of their existence in this town by a social gathering in their hall in Musgrove building Wednesday evening. There was a large attendance of members and their families, and the occasion was one of thorough enjoyment. The Andover Band Orchestra was present and discoursed both concert and dance music. While some doped others played whilst or enjoyed themselves in other ways and during the evening all were regaled with refreshments, furnished by T. E. Rhodes.

This was the first attempt of the Odd Fellows at entertaining and that they were successful is beyond any doubt in the minds of those who were present.

Alden P. White, Candidate for District Attorney.

Alden Perley White, who is at present the leading candidate for the Republican nomination for District Attorney, is distinctively an Essex County man. Born of an ancestry reaching through familiar Essex county names and typical Essex County families to the very settlement of New England, he cherishes its traditions and spirit with loyal enthusiasm and is moved by a genuine appreciation of the high standard of public service which has contributed to the country's proud prestige.

His biography, in brief, is this:—Thirty-eight years old. A native of Danvers, now Peabody. Ten years of childhood spent in South Danvers, now Peabody. Educated in the public schools of that town, Danvers and Salem. Graduated from Amherst College with honors in the well-known class of 1878. Attended the Harvard Law School. Studied in the office of Perry and Endicott, Salem. Admitted to the Essex County Bar 14 years ago, and has practiced in the courts of the county ever since, having offices in Salem. In 1890 he was appointed by the Governor and Council a Special Justice of the first District Court of Essex.

Outside of business Mr. White has been actively interested in the affairs of public interest, serving as School Committee, Moderator, Trustee of the Peabody Institute of Danvers, and in other positions of public trust. He wrote the "History of Danvers" contained in the recent large history of Essex County, is one of the founders of the Danvers Historical Society, Director of the Essex Institute of Salem, President of the Salem Oratorio Society, etc. At the invitation of the town of Wenham Mr. White delivered the oration at the celebration of its 250th anniversary. In politics he has been always a Republican.

Mr. White was appointed by Hon. W. H. Moody soon after his first election to the District Attorneyship as his assistant, and re-appointed on Mr. Moody's re-election. For nearly six years the two men have worked together, sharing all the experience and responsibilities of the office. During this time he has drawn hundreds of indictments on evidence heard by Grand Juries and has managed his share of the trials of cases, more than once carrying them along single handed during a large part of the whole term of court, while Mr. Moody was engaged on other important work of the department. Through this long and close association Mr. White knows better than any one else the methods and standards which have characterized the present administration of the office, and he is necessarily familiar with its duties and requirements.

The consideration of Mr. White as the successor of Mr. Moody is of no recent origin. It seems to be the gradual outgrowth of comment in and out of the court room ever since it began to be understood that Mr. Moody did not himself care for another term. From the generous favor of professional antagonists and commendation from the Bench Mr. White has, during these six years, come under the close observation of certain very discerning critics, namely, the 700 or more jurors from all parts of the county, before whom he has represented the Commonwealth. These men have not only opinions but they have neighbors and friends, and their influence in the matter is far reaching. It is very significant of what is likely to be the result that these men, who have had the best opportunities for judgment, are the strongest supporters of the prevailing sentiment that Mr. White is the natural and logical successor to Mr. Moody, and that his nomination and election will be for the interest of Essex County.—Beverly Times.

A country paper declares that "Mr. Johnson, a farmer of our village, on returning to his house the other day, found in his ground floor bed-room, the door of which had been left open, a cow, probably astray." The conjecture expressed in the last two words may be set down as, on the whole, a fair one.—Presbyterian Messenger.

Remember Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier. Hood's Pills easy to buy, easy to take, easy in effect. 25 cents.

About an Andover Family.

Mr. Editor:

Some of your older readers may be interested to learn of the Turner family who lived in the house formerly next to Abbot Academy now moved to Abbot Street, and who left Andover to live in Waverly in 1864 and later moved to Strongsville, Ohio. They were a much loved family in their neighborhood and church, and I have no doubt many will recall the kind deeds of all, and some may remember the generous handsome loaves of decorated cake for fairs at the church, made by Miss Frank Grant as she was known to her friends.

Rev. J. W. Turner died in Ohio in 1885, aged 74 years; Mrs. A. W. Turner died in Ohio, February, 1895; Mary E. Turner McConnell died in June, 1872; Harriet A. Turner McConnell died in Ohio, August, 1891; Miss Frances M. Grant died in Ohio, April 25, 1882, aged 57 years.

Mrs. Harriet A. McConnell left a lovely family of children, the oldest son now about attaining his majority, and three daughters, the youngest about six years, named Edith Raymond, for a playmate of her mother's youth, and the well known daughter of a former postmaster of Andover. One sister of Mrs. Turner, Miss Harriet L. Grant, is still living in Charlestown, Mass.

Yours very truly,
EMMA M. E. SANBORN.

The Ideal Bicycle.

The young men and maidens who have been putting all their spare cash into "bikes" within a year or two may soon begin to wish they had not been quite so hasty. It is now said that an inventor has devised a little storage battery, to go under the "bike" saddle, which will propel the machine, burn a brilliant lantern for night riding, and sound a "buzzer" to warn off pedestrians, while another inventor has devised an automatic pair of feet on which the machine will stand while you mount, or while you stop and chat with a friend, and fold up out of the way with the first movement to start. This is a real approximation to the ideal bike. A beer pump attachment would make it complete.—Boston Traveler.

Late Literary News.

Rudyard Kipling makes his last appearance as a teller of Jungle Stories in The Cosmopolitan for October. "Mowgli Leaves the Jungle Forever," and the curtain is drawn over one of the most charming conceits in literature. In the same number in which Mowgli makes his final adieu, appears for the first time before an American audience, the now famous Richard Le Gallienne in a plea for religion under the title of "The Greatness of Man." A very important paper on "State Universities" is contributed to this number by Professor Ely. And among the story tellers are Hopkinson Smith and Boyesen. No more beautiful work has ever appeared in any magazine than the marvelous illustrations of Cabinetry used as a frontispiece and accompanying the prose poem by Mrs. Cardozo. Drake—who is said to be Kipling's favorite artist for his Jungle Stories—Carter Beard, Osterlind, Denman, and Kemble, are among those who contribute a wealth of illustration to this number.

Funny Bits.

New office boy: A man called here to thrash you a few minutes ago. Editor: What did you say to him? I told him I was sorry you weren't in.—Tid-Bits.

A reporter, in describing the murder of a man named Jorkins, said: "The murderer was evidently in quest of money, but, luckily, Mr. Jorkins deposited all his funds in the bank the day before, so that he lost nothing but his life."—London Tid-Bits.

"That parrot of mine's a wonderful bird," said Smithers. "He cries 'Stop, thief!' so naturally, that every time I hear it I always stop. What are you all laughing at, anyway?"

Unconscious he lay on his death-bed. At last, with a faint glimmering of intelligence, he beckoned his faithful wife to his side.

Slowly came the solemn words: "Can—can the wheel be mended?—Truth."

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Arthur Bliss, Drug Store.

Christian Endeavor Union.

The 10th anniversary of the Massachusetts Christian Endeavor Convention occurs in Pittsfield Tuesday and Wednesday, October 8 and 9, the gathering commencing in the afternoon of the first day. An address of welcome will be delivered by C. L. Hibbard, president of the local union at Pittsfield, and the response will come from Rev. F. M. Gardner of East Boston, vice-president of the Massachusetts Christian Endeavor Union.

The discussion of the first day by the district secretaries, led by Rev. Edward Lester Marsh of Yarmouth, will be on "How Can We Help Our Societies Perform More Efficient Service?" President Raymond, Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., gives the address.

Tuesday evening Henry A. Stimson, D. D., of New York, is announced to deliver the regular address. On Wednesday morning the sunrise prayer meeting is to be led by Milton A. Dixon of Pittsfield. The presentation of banners by Rev. E. P. Farnham of Salem will be an interesting feature of this day's convention.

The regular forenoon address is by Rev. F. L. Goodspeed of Springfield.

Temperance and mission matters are to be considered in the afternoon, and later the junior hour will be conducted by Miss Grace E. Hyde, superintendent of junior societies, Massachusetts Christian Endeavor Union. The meeting will close with an evening address, followed by a consecration service, by Rev. F. E. Clark, D. D., of Boston.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it at once. Large bottles only fifty cents at Arthur Bliss' Drug Store.

ESSEX, SS.

ANDOVER, September 7th, A. D. 1895.

Taken on execution and will be sold by public auction on Saturday, October 12th, A. D. 1895, at ten o'clock in the forenoon at my office at number 28 Essex Street, Lawrence, Massachusetts, all the right, title and interest which James Coates of Andover, County of Essex, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts had on the 29th day of July, 1895, at eight o'clock and thirty minutes in the forenoon, being the day and hour when the same was attached by me on the original writ, and to the following described lots of real estate, to wit: Three certain lots of land with all the buildings thereon, situated in Andover in the County of Essex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts and bounded as follows: Lot number one, beginning on the westerly side of River Street at land now or formerly of J. P. Bradley, thence running south eleven and one-half degrees, west by said street eighteen rods and twenty links to land now or formerly of Mary Parker, thence westerly by said Parker land to the Shawheen River, thence north by said River about eighteen rods and twenty links to land now or formerly of said Bradley, and thence eighty-five and one-half degrees east by said Bradley land about eighteen rods and twenty links to said point of beginning. Being the same premises conveyed to said James Coates by Willard W. Russell.

Lot number two, bounded as follows: Beginning at the west side of the old Boston Road at the northeast corner of the premises by land of said Bird, thence running south on said Road eighty-one feet to a stake, thence west by land now or formerly of Fannie S. White five hundred and ninety-two feet to a fence at land now or late of Moses Abbott, thence north by said Abbott's land eighty-one feet on the lot number two, thence west by said second lot and land of the said Bird five hundred and ninety-two feet to the point of beginning. Being the premises conveyed to said James Coates by Fannie S. White by deed dated October 26th, 1891, and recorded in North Essex Registry of Deeds, Book 115, Page 625.

Lot number three, bounded as follows: Beginning on the west side of the old Boston Road at the northeast corner of the premises by land of said Bird, thence running south on said Road eighty-one feet to a stake, thence west by land now or formerly of Fannie S. White five hundred and ninety-two feet to a fence at land now or late of Moses Abbott, thence north by said Abbott's land eighty-one feet on the lot number two, thence west by said second lot and land of the said Bird five hundred and ninety-two feet to the point of beginning. Being the premises conveyed to said James Coates by Fannie S. White by deed dated October 26th, 1891, and recorded in North Essex Registry of Deeds, Book 115, Page 625.

ESSEX SS.

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary Healy, late of Andover, in said County, widow, deceased. Whereas a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for probate, by George H. Poor, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond:

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Salem, in said County of Essex, on the twenty-first day of October, A. D. 1895, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper published in Andover, in said County, to be on one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, postpaid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, ROLLINS E. HAMMON, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-first day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

J. T. MARONEY, Register.

IN HUB MARKETS.

But Little Change Noted In Dealings In Butter.

Firm Feeling Developed In the Cheese Market—Fresh Eggs Scarce—Potatoes and Apples in Large Supply.

Boston, Oct. 3.—The butter market is in about the same condition as a week ago. Fine fresh grades are cleaning up pretty well at steady prices, but all the under grades of fresh move slowly at prices which favor buyers. The demand is no larger, and some receivers say that it is not as large, and that fresh receipts are not cleaning up as well as last week.

Cheese.
A firmer feeling has been developed in the cheese market, under the influence of the advance paid in the country, but the buyers here show no disposition to increase their purchases nor pay any higher rates. The Montreal Trade Bulletin reports an improved feeling in the cheese trade. There is a larger business on export account, and contracts for August, September and October cheese, to the extent of 30,000 boxes, have been made at 8 cents in Belleville. A large shrinkage in the Canada market is already apparent.

Eggs.
Fresh eggs have been scarce the last two days, owing to a large portion of the western receipts being injured by the recent hot weather, and prices have advanced. Cold storage stock reduced 2525 cases.

Other Produce.
Beans have ruled quiet and steady at $1.50 a bushel for choice New York marrowfat and mediums, but choice lots from other places can be bought at $1.40 to $1.45. Large supplies of apples continue to be on the market, and common to good varieties are sold at $1 to $1.75 per barrel. Choice Nova Scotia greenstems and other fancy goods command $2 to $3.50 per barrel. Peas plentiful and cheap. Cranberries $4.50 to $6 per barrel.

Potatoes continue in large supply at 35 to 40 cents a bushel, and it is hard to get over 35 cents for carloads of best eastern.

The Produce Quotations.

OATS.—Oats are rather easy. Clipped oats to arrive are quoted at 27 1/2c; No. 2 white, 28c; No. 3 white, 27c; No. 2 mixed, 27c; clipped mixed, 26c. The spot market is fairly sustained, the offerings not being heavy: No. 1 clipped track, 26c; No. 2 clipped, 25 1/2c; No. 2 white, 25c; No. 3 white, 24 1/2c; No. 2 mixed, 24c; clipped mixed, 23 1/2c.

PORK.—There are no changes to note in the pork and lard markets. Barrel pork, $14.50; light hams, $12.50; lean ends, $14.50; fresh ribs, $11.50; sausage, 9c; Frankfurt sausage, 5c; large hams, 9c; medium, 10c; small, 10c; skinned hams, 10c; lard, 9c; in pails, 7 1/2c; pure lard, in pails, 9c; city dressed hog, 6c; country, 5c.

MEAT.—Cornmeal is again a little easier, following the quotation of corn. Klondike corn meal for export, $1.50; 100 bag meal, 3c; yellow granulated, 3c; 4c; 5c; ground and rolled oatmeal, $4.50; cut, 4c; 5c; 6c; 7c; 8c; 9c; 10c; 11c; 12c; 13c; 14c; 15c; 16c; 17c; 18c; 19c; 20c; 21c; 22c; 23c; 24c; 25c; 26c; 27c; 28c; 29c; 30c; 31c; 32c; 33c; 34c; 35c; 36c; 37c; 38c; 39c; 40c; 41c; 42c; 43c; 44c; 45c; 46c; 47c; 48c; 49c; 50c; 51c; 52c; 53c; 54c; 55c; 56c; 57c; 58c; 59c; 60c; 61c; 62c; 63c; 64c; 65c; 66c; 67c; 68c; 69c; 70c; 71c; 72c; 73c; 74c; 75c; 76c; 77c; 78c; 79c; 80c; 81c; 82c; 83c; 84c; 85c; 86c; 87c; 88c; 89c; 90c; 91c; 92c; 93c; 94c; 95c; 96c; 97c; 98c; 99c; 100c.

APPLES.—A better demand for apples is noted, with a steadier market, under cooler weather. Choice greenstems, $2.50; western lots of different varieties, $1.75; York state, $1.50; Maine harvest, $1.50. Very choice in a small way, being higher prices.

MUTTONS AND LAMBS.—Muttons and lambs are rather better sustained, with veal firm; spring lambs, 5c; fancy Brigons, 5c; eastern lambs, 5c; yearlings, 5c; mutton, 5c; veal, 5c; as to quality.

POTATOES.—Potatoes are rather better sustained; 100 bag meal, 3c; yellow granulated, 3c; 4c; 5c; ground and rolled oatmeal, $4.50; cut, 4c; 5c; 6c; 7c; 8c; 9c; 10c; 11c; 12c; 13c; 14c; 15c; 16c; 17c; 18c; 19c; 20c; 21c; 22c; 23c; 24c; 25c; 26c; 27c; 28c; 29c; 30c; 31c; 32c; 33c; 34c; 35c; 36c; 37c; 38c; 39c; 40c; 41c; 42c; 43c; 44c; 45c; 46c; 47c; 48c; 49c; 50c; 51c; 52c; 53c; 54c; 55c; 56c; 57c; 58c; 59c; 60c; 61c; 62c; 63c; 64c; 65c; 66c; 67c; 68c; 69c; 70c; 71c; 72c; 73c; 74c; 75c; 76c; 77c; 78c; 79c; 80c; 81c; 82c; 83c; 84c; 85c; 86c; 87c; 88c; 89c; 90c; 91c; 92c; 93c; 94c; 95c; 96c; 97c; 98c; 99c; 100c.

All Honor to Governor Greenhalge.

Those were royal words of Governor Greenhalge's at the Park Street Church in Boston, Wednesday, in his address before the "Parliament of Man." After emphasizing the need of such a movement as was being considered he urged upon his hearers their duty in supporting their public officials who are striving "as if with devils," to do what is right, and to give them their earnest support, and not to unthinkingly criticize. Instead of looking for the mote in his brother's eye, he should search for the beam in his own. He should remember that the official he blames for losing a pawn may have done so to win a bishop. In concluding, Governor Greenhalge said that he permitted no man to excel him in his devotion to the American flag and all that its glorious folds include in the way of American citizenship. And there is no man, he continued, whom I most utterly detest and despise than he who would steal that flag or any symbol of our nation and claim it for himself, and leave the rest of the community out in the cold. We all have equal rights to the flag, and all have equal rights to the principles of American citizenship. Not only with our lips but with our lives we want to be known. And it is in this way that we shall make our city and the Commonwealth so great that they will not need the light of the sun, but will be lighted forever by the glory of the Lord.

Editorial Cinders.

Good for Texas: Her Legislators say "No" with an emphasis that even the prize fighters cannot misunderstand, to the proposed Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight.

The Village Improvement Society are to provide waste bins at the Postoffice. That is good sensible village improvement and every citizen can help it by seeing that his waste mail matter finds the bins instead of the street, after they are in place.

That is a handsome piece of road that the town is building under the State Highway Commission contract in Frye Village. But hasn't there got to be some rushing if it is to be finished before snow flies? Leaving that end of the road for the other, we want to urge to the attention of the authorities the bad and almost dangerous condition of the road from Morton Street to the hill top. It is next to impossible to ride a bicycle down the hill, and it certainly needs the earliest attention of the road makers to be made even passable.

We are glad that the state democratic platform has some "issues" to be discussed other than the qualifications of the respective candidates for governor. With the question of restricting legislative lobbying and the discussion of the currency question, the people will likely gain some valuable knowledge of these questions and the state still retain the services of one of its best governors among many good ones, in the overwhelming re-election of Governor Greenhalge.

JAMES H. DERBYSHIRE.

The Nominee of the Republican Senatorial Convention in Lawrence this Morning.

Contrary to all expectations there was a very short session of the delegates to the Republican Senatorial Convention at Lawrence this morning. Charles U. Bell, chairman of the district committee, called the gathering to order, and Gilbert E. Hood was made temporary chairman, with John E. Ashton of Lawrence as secretary. A committee on credentials, consisting of Mr. Webster of Lawrence, Mr. Butler of Lawrence, and Mr. Rogers of Andover, reported the convention to contain 46 delegates, after which the temporary organization was made permanent. A motion to proceed to ballot was followed by speeches putting in nomination, John L. Brewster and James H. Derbyshire of Lawrence and George H. Poor of Andover.

The first ballot was voted to be formal one, and was declared as follows:
Whole number of votes, 45
Necessary for a choice, 23
George H. Poor, 6
John L. Brewster, 16
James H. Derbyshire, 23
and Mr. Derbyshire was declared the nominee of the convention.

Charles U. Bell was then elected a member of the State Committee, and it was voted that the chairman of the city and town committees be a district committee. The chairman appointed a committee consisting of Mr. Barker of Lawrence and Mr. Cole of Andover to bring Mr. Derbyshire before the convention, and after that gentleman had accepted the nomination the convention dissolved.

There promises to be a long time discussion of two queries arising from the action of the convention, "Who didn't vote?" and "Who went back on his pledge?"

Democratic Caucus.

A few of the faithful heeded the call of the Democratic Town Committee and assembled in the Lower Town Hall last Friday evening and proceeded to name the delegates for the several conventions.

John J. Sweeney called the meeting to order and was made permanent chairman, with C. A. Sullivan as secretary.

A committee, consisting of W. P. Regan, P. J. Hannon and John Davey, was appointed to retire and bring in a list of delegates. That duty being performed, the caucus proceeded to ballot for the list as brought in and it was unanimously voted.

The delegates and the conventions to which they attend are as follows:

State.—P. J. Hannon, S. B. Locke, W. G. Goldsmith, John S. Stark.

County.—C. W. Thwing, Owen Caffrey, J. J. Feeney, E. Y. Hincks.

Councillor.—John O'Connell, John C. Crowninshield, Wm. G. Goldsmith, James Nolan.

Senatorial.—J. J. Sweeney, C. A. Sullivan, W. P. Regan, John Davey.

Representative.—R. J. Sherry, Jeremiah Cronin, Wm. J. Burns, H. McLaughlin.

District Attorney.—Wm. Doherty, Isaac Johnson, R. McIsaac, James E. Daley.

Town Committee.—J. J. Sweeney, C. A. Sullivan, W. P. Regan, Owen Caffrey, S. B. Locke.

Political Conventions Held and to Come.

The democratic senatorial convention for this district will be held in City Hall, Lawrence, next Wednesday.

The sixth councillor district republican convention, to which Andover's delegation belongs, has been called for Wednesday, Oct. 9, at 10 o'clock A. M., in Jackson Hall, Lowell.

The democratic councillor convention convened in the same hall to-day.

The republican representative district convention will be held at Odd Fellows Hall, North Andover, next Wednesday evening, Oct. 9.

The Prohibition senatorial convention for this district was held Wednesday evening in Lawrence, and Rev. Varnum Lincoln of this town was chairman and John Howell on the credential committee. Delegates were present from Andover and Lawrence and Thomas T. Fairburn of the latter place was nominated for senator. Rev. Mr. Lincoln was chosen a member of the State committee and John Howell one of the senatorial district committee.

FRYE VILLAGE

George Mander and daughter Piety arrived home Monday from a pleasant visit to England.

W. M. Wood and family returned yesterday from their summer's stay at the beach.

Mrs. Geo. W. Morgan was thrown from her carriage last week and broke one of her ribs. The accident was caused by the horse shying and tipping the carriage.

Florist Playdon will make a display at the millinery opening of C. E. Richardson & Co. in Lawrence next Tuesday and Wednesday.

If your child is puny, fretful, troubled with glandular swellings, inflamed eyes, or sores on the head, face, or body, a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is needed to expel the scrofulous humors from the blood. The sooner you begin to give this medicine the better.

The Village School.

"The Village School" to be given next week Friday is unique in its way. "A great success" is the verdict in all other places where it has been given. This testimony has come directly, from Concord, Dover, Woburn, Taunton, Medford, Winchester and Newton, from people who have witnessed it. Next Friday will be the sixty-eighth time Miss Brigham has conducted "the Examination." Two years ago it was given under the Y. P. C. E. and last spring again under the Y. P. C. E. the repetition netting the management $400. It is Miss Brigham's custom to have representatives of the different interest and prominent people in a town compose the school, and Andover's Literary, School, Professional, Social and Business Circle will be interested in its production.

An evening of pure, innocent fun where laughter and jollity can have full sway, is restful to mind and body, and a pleasure to think about afterwards. Don't lose this opportunity to re-create and "drive dull care away." Checks can be obtained now of the school children, and at the Bookstore, and on Tuesday A. M. can be exchanged for reserved seats at Mr. Cole's.

Y. P. C. E. Quarterly Meeting.

The quarterly meeting of the Andover Christian Endeavor Union at the West Church, Tuesday evening, was well attended by the members of the different societies connected with it and the exercises were of a pleasant and profitable nature. The banner for the society having the largest representation of active members present was awarded to the West Church society, which had 76 per cent present.

As the society of the church, where the meeting is held, naturally has some advantage over visiting societies, it is understood that a change is likely to be made and that only the visiting societies will be in competition for the banner.

Rev. Geo. W. Henderson, of Straight University, New Orleans who spoke on "Work Among the Negroes" was very interesting and gave his hearers a pleasing and instructive insight into the important work, which is being done in the South among the colored people.

The exercises of the evening closed with a social time and refreshments.

Surprise Party.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Averill, who are recent comers to our town and who are now occupying the E. Francis Holt farm in West Parish, received a most agreeable surprise last Friday evening when about sixty members of the North Andover Grange walked unceremoniously into their house and took full possession. Although they came without special invitation and without giving any previous notice to Mr. and Mrs. Averill, so that they might be prepared, they were received with cordial greetings and at once made to feel at home. The party enjoyed a most pleasant evening in the customary manner of events of this kind.

One of the most pleasing features of the evening, however, to both host and hostess and to those who planned the surprise, was the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Averill of some very pretty gifts, tokens of the esteem in which they are held by their friends in their former place of residence. Among these gifts were a handsome sideboard, rocker and lamp.

It was an event which all concerned will hold in pleasant remembrance for a long time.

Andover Student Ordained.

An ordination, says the Bridgton, Me. News, of an unusual character occurred at the First Congregational Church last Friday. The church has ordained a good number to its pastorate, but for the first time it has now ordained one of its members to preach as a missionary. Mr. Henry W. Webb, a graduate of Bowdoin College and Andover Theological Seminary, came before a council of churches and showed himself well-equipped for the work to which he believed himself called.

The young man was examined by Rev. J. G. Merrill, D.D., of Portland and sustained himself unusually well, showing that he had studied thoughtfully. The answers were given carefully, frankly, and convinced the council that they had before them one well trained and equipped for his chosen work.

Rev. Mr. Merrill, who is well known here, preached the ordination sermon, and Rev. George M. Woodwell, pastor of the Bridgton Church, and son of Mrs. C. S. Woodwell of this town, extended the right hand of fellowship.

Juvenile Missionary Fair at the West Parish Church.

The Juvenile Missionary Society of the West Parish Church will hold its annual fair, Wednesday, Oct. 9th, afternoon and evening, in the Vestry and the Church. During the afternoon there will be the usual display of fancy articles, and at 6:45 o'clock a brief but interesting program will be presented in the Church under the direction of the Society. There will be a short talk to the "little people on 'How some Other Little People Live in this World'" by Mr. MacFadden, and after the exercises in the Church a supper will be served in the Vestry. Admission will be ten cents.

Lend a Hand.

William F. Bartlett's W. R. C. generally succeed in what they undertake, and with great courage have set out to hold a fair in the Town Hall, Oct. 15 and 16, to raise money to purchase a monument worthy to be dedicated on the coming anniversary of Andover's 250th birthday. It will be erected upon the lot in Spring Grove Cemetery that was set apart by the town years before the Post was formed, as a burial place for the homeless, friendless defender who must else go into a pauper's grave. Seven are there already, and the United States government will place suitable headstones above their resting places. About $500 will be required to make a firm foundation to mound suitably that part of the design to be contributed by the State of Massachusetts. This is a scheme that appeals both to patriotism and the proper pride we are all beginning to feel in old Andover, and which will be shared by those coming after us. So let all the children work for this object in the child's way that only a child's heart is wise to invent.

A paper is going about town, stating the needs of the committees in charge of the various tables, fancy articles, aprons, china, candy, and fluff of all a harvest table. (Here let me suggest to the committee that this a good time to sell the bulbs of crocus and tulip and things of that line that must be planted this month for spring bloom.) A doll's town, a new fangled grab of the pudding species, peanut and flower vendors in costume, and a supper table where the business men are expected to spend most of their time will be added to entertainments for the eye and ear upon the stage for both evenings and Wednesday afternoon. All this is prepared for the ordinary fair-goer for 35 cents season, 25 cents single, for grown-ups, and 25 cents season, and 10 single for those below 15 years. Come in and give good cheer if you are too busy to make anything, and if your pocket and time are both pinched invite a friend to take your place.

C. H. A.

The Evening School.

The evening school will resume its sessions soon if the demand is great enough to warrant it. Those who wish to attend it are requested to give their names with list of studies desired to Rev. F. A. Wilson of the committee, by Oct. 11.

Classes will be formed in the studies of last year, English grammar, reading, writing, spelling, arithmetic, book-keeping, drawing, French, and short hand, and such other branches as algebra, geometry and history, should a sufficient number of persons desire them.

Big Fire at Lawrence.

Lawrence seems to be having a tussle with a fire bug at present. There have been numerous fires lately, most of which seem to be of an incendiary origin.

Last Sunday night about 8:30, fire destroyed the pavilion at Grand View, a former popular pleasure resort up the Merrimack River. The flames lighted up the sky brightly and were plainly visible to persons here who happened to be out. The building was two stories in height and included a dance hall, restaurant and office on the lower floor, and living rooms above. Before Glen Forest came into existence this was the most popular resort on the river and has been visited by many Andover people. It was purchased about two months ago by Councilman W. H. Forbes and ex-Alderman G. H. Kittredge and was closed Sunday about 4 o'clock for the season. That the fire was incendiary is generally believed. The loss was about $1500, partially covered by insurance.

Births.

In Andover, Sept. 26, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wild, Frye Village.

In Andover, Oct. 1, a son to Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon of Frye Village.

Headache Cured.

"I have suffered for years with sick headaches. I have taken one bottle of Hood's Pills and have not had a headache since." Mrs. John Richards No. 3 Ray Street, Lynn, Mass.

Hood's Pills cure indigestion.

Easy

To buy, easy to take, and easy in effect, are characteristic of Hood's Pills. They are small, tasteless, and purely vegetable. They act gently but thoroughly and satisfactorily. They do not irritate or inflame the intestines, but leave them in a natural, healthy condition. 25 cents.

BALLARD VALE.

Miss Niva Clark was visiting friends in town Saturday.

E. Bentley Pearson spent Sunday with his parents.

John Hax has moved his family to Andover, Conn.

Mrs. John Lowe of Worcester has been visiting Timothy Lowe on High Street.

Mrs. Sarah Craig has been visiting friends in town.

John Burns is having his house shingled. Chas. Stickney is doing the work.

Ephraim Wright of Reading spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Chas. E. Davies, Lowell Street.

Joseph Shaw commenced his apprenticeship in the wool shop of the Ballard Vale Mills last Wednesday.

Remember the dance in Bradlee Hall to-night, given for the benefit of the Ballard Vale foot-ball team.

Any foot-ball eleven desirous of arranging a game with the Ballard Vale foot-ball team should write to Martin McKeon, manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herron of Woburn are spending their honeymoon at the home of Mr. Sylvanus Perry on Lowell Street.

A good sized delegation of Ballardvale Odd Fellows attended the meeting and social held by the Andover lodge last Wednesday evening. A fine time was reported.

The Stamp Saving Society commencing next Wednesday, Oct. 9, will meet every Wednesday afternoon from four to five o'clock, at the home of Mrs. H. F. Wilson.

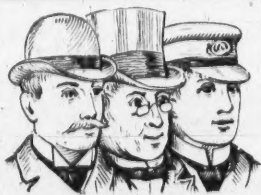

Quite a number of village people have visited the gypsy camp and had their fortunes told. Most of the folks were satisfied, but a certain young lady was very sad and melancholy. Can you guess the reason?

About thirty of the friends and members of the local Christian Endeavor Society attended the quarterly meeting of the Andover Christian Endeavor Union held at the West Church last Tuesday evening. After a very cordial welcome by the pastor, Rev. R. A. MacFadden, an interesting and instructive address was given by the Rev. Geo. W. Henderson.

The Ballardvale Lodge of Good Templars will hold a public Good of the Order and Temperance Rally in Bradlee Hall next Monday evening, Oct. 7, at 7:45 o'clock. All persons are cordially invited to be present. A special program has been prepared for the occasion, which will be in part as follows: An exercise by the children, "Cold Water Cross;" a short drama entitled "Saved;" an address by Willard O. Wylie, Grand Chief Templar of Beverly. Mr. Wylie is a very active temperance worker and an exceptionally interesting speaker. Every person that is interested in temperance should make a special effort to be present. The members of the local Lodge of Good Templars are requested to bring their badges and meet at the lodge room at 7 o'clock sharp, from which place they will march in a body to Bradlee Hall.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Liver Ills, Biliousness, Indigestion, Headache. A pleasant laxative. All Druggists.

I was suffering from an attack of the dysentery, when I got hold of a small bottle of Chamberlain's Cough, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It gave me immediate relief. I knew it would for I had used it before. J. F. M. FIELDS, Greenfield, Ga.

and all other men who have to look neat while at work, should know about "CELLULOID" COLLARS AND CUFFS. They look exactly like linen, wear well and being waterproof do not wilt down with heat and moisture. They do not soil easily and can be cleaned in a moment by simply wiping off with a wet sponge or cloth. Do not confuse these in your mind with composition goods. Every piece of the genuine is stamped like this:

Ask for these and refuse anything else if you wish satisfaction. Remember that goods so marked are the only waterproof goods made by coating a linen collar with waterproof. Celluloid, thus giving strength and durability. If your dealer should not have the "Celluloid" send amount direct to us and we will mail you sample post-paid. Collars 25c. each. Cuffs, 50c. pair. State size and whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

CAPE COD ALBINOS.

A COLONY OF PINK EYED AND WHITE HAIRIED PEOPLE.

It is About 150 Years Old and at One Time It Numbered About Fifty Persons. The Story of the Pittsleys and Their Physical Peculiarities.

Since the appearance of albino girls in side shows and dime museums the general public has indulged in considerable speculation as to where the managers of these freak aggregations procure their frizzy haired specimens. Although seldom met with at other places, there is at Cape Cod a settlement of these pink eyed and white haired people. For generations the Pittsley family, known in the section as the "white haired Pittsleys," have been albino. They have intermarried, and, although clannish in the extreme, years ago took into the family fold a man named Reynolds, in whose children the peculiarity cropped out, and added the "white haired Reynolds" to the little army of Cape Cod's human curiosities. Until quite recently a dozen or 15 Pittsley albinos might have been found within half as many miles of each other and sometimes under the same roof. But the families in which there are albinos have scattered lately and spread over the most lonely parts of the country from Freetown to Wareham, at the entrance to Cape Cod.

The museum albino and the albino in real life have little in common. The albino at home is disappointing. His or her hair isn't crimped to the museum limit. It doesn't stand out a la Circassian. In the natural Pittsley state the albino hair is dingy, because they don't know any better, and if they did they probably wouldn't adopt the modern methods of washing hair.

The eyes of the albino in this region prove their albinism beyond question. They are usually described as pink, like rabbits' eyes. They are extremely weak and almost closed, so that it is difficult to get a square look into the eye itself. When the eye is opened, the lid is lifted only for a second, and it takes a quick look to discover that the pupil is dark red and surrounded with a lighter red ring, while the ball of the eye is pale pink and surrounded with the pinkish rim of the eyelid. The effect would be thoroughly pink if the eye remained at rest. It is almost impossible to obtain a direct look into the eye, because from the eye of the healthy albino red lights seem to dart, while the pupil quivers and dilates and seems to move uneasily.

It is over a century and a half since the appearance of the first albino was recorded in the Pittsley tribe. Since that time probably more than 100 have been born bearing this name or having mothers from this family. At one time it is estimated that only a few less than 50 albinos were living within a radius of 25 miles. Barnum might here have held an albino congress if he had been able to engage all of these people with the wonderful wine red pupils. It has always been among the legends of the county that the great showman did recruit his collection from this locality, but today the proud Pittsleys deny indignantly that Barnum ever had money enough to engage even one of them to pose in public.

The origin of the family is connected with one of the wickedest episodes of the early history of the new world. There is even a chance that perhaps some Pittsley was a relative or friend of the sweet and pious Evangeline. When the English departed from the vales of Acadia the families of French neutrals and scattered them in almost every settlement from the mouth of the Penobscot around to Louisiana, Freetown, which was near the colony of Plymouth, had not been able to send its full quota of men to the army. So in the distribution of the French from Acadia 15 men, with some women and children, were left in Freetown. The bitterest of all was the separation and splitting up of families. The people were filled with dejection, and the poorest of them apparently built some rude lodges in the forests and took no care how they lived. None spoke their language. They were strangers in habits and manners. Men had been separated from wives and daughters, and wives left without their husbands.

Just what the name of the French neutral ancestor of the albino Pittsleys may have been no research has ever revealed. On the town records, until within 50 years, the name has been Piggisley. In many cases the name Piggisley has been corrupted into "Hoggisley."

The first appearance of pink eyes and white hair was in a Robert Pittsley somewhere in the first half of the eighteenth century. Some place it as early as 1731. From that time down the albino characteristics have been continually reproduced. It is believed that continual intermarriage has been largely instrumental in handing down the pink eyes and white hair. The Pittsleys were clannish. They wouldn't mingle with other families, much less take wives from them. They clubbed by themselves, but often one family made a home for itself in some deserted house or jockey house in a lonely part of the woods or out of the way end of a township. They rarely came to town to live. In their ways and their love of outdoor life these people show many of the characteristics of the gypsy, and another point which allies them to the wandering clans is their ability to "swap" horses, a business at which most all of the males are experts. They are illiterate and account for their physical peculiarities by the theory that one of their ancestors had his hair turn white after a fright and bequeathed his curious hereditary possession to his children.—Philadelphia Times.

HOMEMADE TRUNKS.

The Scheme of a Chicago Man to Beat the Railroads on Baggage.

A caller dropped into the Brightside flat and found Mr. and Mrs. Brightside and their wise little terrier, Ming, all assembled in the kitchen. Mr. Brightside was busy boring holes with an auger in the end of a good sized packing box, while Mrs. Brightside and the dog, seated side by side on the floor, regarded him with intense though possibly hypocritical admiration. Near by stood another packing box with four holes in each end, through which loops of strong rope had been so fastened as to make good, serviceable handles.

"This is about the greatest crisis of my life," observed Mr. Brightside. "How do you suppose I got that rope in without opening the box? Just figure on it now."

As the caller belongs to the sex which has never produced a great epic poem, discovered a continent or voted for the governor of Illinois, she gave up the problem with a cheerful meekness born of centuries of acknowledged incapacity. Mr. Brightside, having finished boring, produced a bent wire and a piece of string, one end of which was fastened to a few feet of rope. With the wire he proceeded to insert the string into one hole and wiggle it cut another. By means of the string the rope was then towed into position, the whole process ending triumphantly in another pair of handles.

"But what are you doing it for?" "He's making trunks," explained Mrs. Brightside. "It's his latest specialty."

"The only trouble with me," said Mr. Brightside, with apparent irrelevance, "is that I'm lazy."

"But what on top of the prairie are you making trunks out of packing boxes for? Cui bono, you know."

"To save freight. I'm sending them to a friend in Wisconsin, you see. I've got some other friends starting out there tonight, and if these things have handles on they can take them as baggage. Otherwise the railway company won't let them. Can your female mind assimilate that fact? Taking it by and large," he added modestly, "it's a beautiful piece of work."

The caller joined the intent audience on the floor and contemplated Mr. Brightside with wonder, love and praise. It was pleasing to find any one clever enough to get ahead of a railroad company.—Chicago Tribune.

MAKING TOYS.

The Art Descending From One Generation to Another in St. Ulrich.

Miss Amelia B. Edwards, in her "Untrodden Peaks," mentions many an interesting visit to the homes of the working people of St. Ulrich, where so many toys are made.

In one house, runs the account, we found an old, old woman at work, Magdalena Paldan by name. She carved cats, dogs, wolves, sheep, goats and elephants. She has made those six animals, her whole life long, and she has no idea of how to cut anything else. She makes them in two sizes, and she turns out as nearly as possible a thousand of them a year.

She has no model or drawing of any kind to work by, but goes on steadily, unerringly, using gouges of different sizes and shaping out her cats, dogs, wolves, sheep, goats and elephants with an ease and an amount of truth to nature that would be clever if it were not utterly mechanical. Magdalena Paldan learned from her mother how to carve those six animals, and her mother had learned, in like manner, from her grandmother. Magdalena has now taught the art to her own granddaughter, and so it will go on being transmitted for generations.

In another house Miss Edwards found the whole family carving skulls and crossbones for fixing at the bases of crucifixes, for the wood carving of Grodner Thal is religious in its nature as well as amusing. In other houses there were families that carved rocking horses or dolls or other toys, and in still other houses there were families of painters.

In one house we found about a dozen girls painting gray horses with black points. In another house they painted only red horses with white points. It is a separate branch of the trade to paint saddles and headgear. A good hand will paint 12 dozen horses a day, each horse being about a foot in length, and for these she is paid 55 soldi, or about 2s. 3d.

Cyrus Field as a Host.

Happening to be a visitor in the Washington building recently and passing the old office of Cyrus Field I recalled the day the house was opened to the public. Mr. Field was extremely proud of it. He had invited 200 or 300 friends to a banquet on the roof and stood at the open hatchway to welcome all who came. It was late when up walked a man of middle age who had never seen Cyrus Field in his life and had not only not received an invitation to the banquet, but knew nothing about such an affair. He was merely looking around the building.

"You are just the man we all are waiting for," said Mr. Field, holding out his hand with a merry laugh. "Come right along. The feast is ready."

Before the man could ask for an explanation the host had hurried him along to one of the most conspicuous seats at the board and ordered the best in the house for him. He had a knack of making every one feel perfectly at home. His end was very pitiful.—New York Press.

The New Vigilantes.

The hoarse shouts of the mob indicated that the fell work was done.

"Stole a horse, I presume," ventured the tenderfoot, gesturing in the direction of the deceased.

"Bicycle," they rejoined, not without revealing the pain the suggestion of the other occasioned.

The end of the age was at hand and progress was spurring in the stretch.—Detroit Tribune.

MAY BE SINGING FISHES.

A Phenomenon of the Sea Which Is Interesting and Mysterious.

Here is an account of a phenomenon of the Pascagoula river in Mississippi, to which, although it is not generally known, the attention of naturalists has been called on account of its mystery. At times very remarkable sounds are heard at the mouth of this river. The local fishermen say that it is "the spirits singing under the water." It is a murmuring sound, which rises gradually and then falls to a lower tone. The music ceases when the waters are disturbed, and when they are quiet it begins again.

Several explanations have been offered as to the origin and cause of the mysterious sounds of the Pascagoula. The most satisfactory theory is that the sounds are produced by a species of fish in some unknown way. Professor G. Brown Goode, who is an authority on fishes and fish life, thinks that the drumfish may cause the sounds in question.

Instances of peculiar sounds being heard at sea and ascribed to fishes are not uncommon, as the following examples will show:

In 1824, when Lieutenant White of the American navy was at the mouth of a river in Cambodia, he and his crew were surprised by unusual sounds. He described the noises as a mixture of the bass of an organ, the ringing of bells, the guttural cries of a large frog and the tones of an immense harp. The natives said that the sounds were produced by a school of a certain kind of fish.

Dr. Buist, 1847, reported that a party of people in a boat on the waters near Bombay heard strange sounds, which the natives held to be caused by fish. The well known English traveler, Sir J. Emerson Tennent, heard similar sounds from the lake of Batticaloa in Ceylon, and here again the natives claimed that fishes made the sounds. Several correspondents of newspapers have reported having heard sounds which were produced by fishes. One writer in the London Field, 1867, avers that in the harbor at Greytown, Nicaragua, he was haunted at night by these mysterious sounds. Another in the same paper tells of musical sounds which he heard in the Tavy river. Other instances of more recent date might be mentioned.

From all the accounts given we may draw some interesting conclusions. Thus it seems that the sounds are almost always heard on shipboard, though Charles Kingsley once heard them at Trinidad from the shore; that they are usually heard in tropical regions; that they are more often heard at night than at any other time; that they are commonly heard at the mouth of rivers, as at the mouth of the Pascagoula, and that they have been reported from far distant places in America, Europe and Asia.—Our Animal Friends.

Praises the Bicycle.

It seems to be coming—scientific approval—in all directions. Dr. Champagniere, member of the Academy of Medicine, has made observations on Frenchwomen who have used the wheel, and he finds they are better performers than men, learning more easily and with less purposeless expenditure of force. He finds a marked increase in the amount of muscle developed all over the trunk of the body, especially about the torso. The lung capacity is increased, full, healthy action of the heart is restored and the deposition of fat is avoided. The doctor asserts that he can detect infallibly the woman who uses the wheel from her sisters when they cross the streets. One proceeds with self confidence and ease when the other dodges and invites disaster. He then examines the mental discipline afforded by the bicycle, and thence deduces his most striking conclusions. He finds that the woman's powers of attention and observation are awakened in an extraordinary degree, or rather that these powers, with which all human beings are endowed at birth, are saved from atrophy, which in both sexes is one of the most marked defects produced by civilization. The wheelwoman move with something of the freedom and dignity observed in some of the higher uncivilized races. The doctor disclaims any intention to theorize, but at the close of his article permits himself to dream of a new Frenchwoman as the product of the bicycle.

Pigeon Roosts Fifty Years Ago.

Pigeon Roost, Scott county, Ind., received its name from its being the nightly rendezvous of the passenger or wild pigeon. These pigeons usually selected some heavily wooded or elevated locality for their roosting, bordering on their feeding grounds, which might be several hundred miles in extent. The pigeons usually commenced to arrive before sunset and continued in increasing numbers until after midnight. At daybreak the birds would begin to leave the roost, and on swift wing depart for their feeding grounds, miles away, returning at night, as stated. It may safely be said that these birds ranged the forests of Indiana from the Wabash to the Ohio, and extending far into Kentucky. So large were their roosts that they became localities of great interest. None was more famous than the one in Finley township, Scott county, Ind.; hence the name of the settlement early established there—the Pigeon Roost.—Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

Drop Forgings.

The machinery for drop forging is ponderous and expensive. The plates that stamp out the forgings are in two sections, one of which fits into the bed of the machine, and the other is fastened to the arm. Together these two plates have as opening the shape of the desired forging. The descent of the arm on a piece of cool steel stamps out a piece of the requisite shape. After leaving the forging machine the metal is in a rough state and has to be turned down on a lathe and bored out, each of which operations has to be carefully done, as the finished article has to be exact in every particular.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Mountaineering Memories.

I had not long left a public school and was unconscious of the possession of nerves. Given sufficient hold for hand and foot, I never felt any more inclination to fall in a place where a fall would carry me a couple of thousand feet to the bottom of a precipice than where it would only involve a tumble of a yard into soft snow. But to poise oneself in going down a series of steps that are merely tiny chips in hard ice, tilted up at an angle greater than that of an average roof—this sort of work demands some skill, which does not come by nature, but has to be acquired by experience. The only safe way, when a novice is of the party, is not to allow him to move, unless the man to whom he is roped is firmly anchored, and this course was repeatedly adopted on our descent.

It was, however, when we had reached the ice fall of the glacier that the incident occurred of which I have the most vivid recollection. The snow bridges over the crevasses had easily borne our weight in the early morning, when the frost still held them in its grip, but by the time we returned the sun had produced its effect, and I was not the only one of our party who went through in the fashion already described. Of course, the rope furnishes an absolute security, provided that the rest of the party are on what Mrs. Malaprop would call terra cotta, but I repeat that it is at first startling to find oneself swinging in vacancy over an apparently bottomless abyss.

In a good many years of mountaineering I have encountered certain real dangers, but none, I think, which has impressed me so strongly as the imaginary peril of that sudden descent below the surface of the Aletsch glacier some 30 years ago.—Blackwood's Magazine

Just Escaped.

An elderly Scotchman was trying on some spectacles which an itinerant optician had with him for sale. A pair was selected, and the latter suggested that, to benefit the sight in old age, rubbing the upper eyelids with raw gin was a valuable application. "Eh, mon," said the Scotchman, "I'm verra glad ye said gin, for if ye had said whiskey I dinna think I could have got it up so high."—Household Words.

Chief of Police Robinson arrested Peter Smith near Odd Fellows' Hall about 12:30 o'clock Saturday morning. He was arraigned before the court in the afternoon, charged with drunkenness. He pleaded guilty to the charge, and in consideration of it being his first offence the case was continued for sentence.

One of the most amusing things that occurred at the recent anniversary exercises at the North Parish Church, was the pungent but true statement of Dr. William Everett, characterizing Andover, to the Southland, as being merely the exercise while the North Parish was the good old town. Andover has the name, but North Andover the history.

John, the 8 year old son of Cornelius Wall of Main Street, while jumping the rails on the Boston & Maine railroad near the North Andover Mill slipped and struck his forehead. He arose and started to walk, but the force of the previous blow so weakened him that he fell and struck the back of his head and became unconscious. He was taken home by Francis Doherty where he was attended by Dr. Weil.

While at work near the "pontoon bridge" which spans Cochichewick brook near Jerusalem, Friday, Cornelius Mahoney found a box of shoes practically destroyed by exposure to the weather, concealed by the underbrush which grows in that locality. The property proved to be that of Mr. Schreuder, a peaceful resident of Stevens Village, and for which search was instituted over a year ago. At that time three boxes of shoes were stolen from the Wardwell residence where the gentleman had been accustomed to keep his property. One box was thrown into the brook and another found in a neighboring culvert on the Eastern Division of the Boston and Maine Railroad. The other property has been missing up to the discovery referred to. So far as the perpetrators are concerned, the case is in the hands of the police, together with many others of more recent origin.

Wedding.

William McNiff and Ida Trombley were married in St. Michael's Church about 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by Rev. M. T. McManus. The wedding costume of the bride was a ghina silk, trimmed with passementerie; she also wore a satin and lace hat and carried roses as the bridal flower. Her sister, Cecilia E., attended as bridesmaid and was gowned in silk of salmon color and trimmed with white lace.

Charles McNiff, a younger brother of the groom, was the groomsmen, and Louis Trombley and Henry McCarthy were ushers. The church was thronged with friends and spectators during the ceremony, after which a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, and a wedding feast was served on the lawn.

The wedding gifts included an extensive and valuable array. Mr. and Mrs. McNiff will be at home on Union Street after the 16th inst.

COMMEMORATION DAY.

First Church and Society of Andover. 1845-1895.

On the 250th birthday of the First Church and Society, which occurred Wednesday, events of historical importance and interest received fitting notice in prose and poetry from men prominent in the realms of pulpit and pew.

At 10:45 o'clock the auditorium was well filled with the descendants of many of the families who are prominent in the history of old Andover, and to whom the occasion would, on this account, be of especial and particular import.

MEETING HOUSES.

The first meeting house was a temporary structure and was used as a house of worship from 1645 to 1669, when a new meeting house was built, which stood until 1709. At this time the town was divided into two church precincts. The North Parish built a meeting house 56x80 feet, 22 feet studd, "With a roof like Salem meeting house." This building stood until 1753, when a new one was built, which stood until 1836. At that time the present church edifice was erected. The first three meeting houses were probably located near the old burying ground, and the last two near the site of the present edifice.

HYMNS.

Written for the occasion by REV. JOHN H. CLIFFORD, of New York.
Minister from 1871 to 1883.
Tune: Arlington.

What witness clouds, O Church, is thine,
On century wings far flown,
Thy gloried with the light divine
Which hath forever shone.

Here human strength and nature frail
Have sought the ways of truth;
Hence into realms beyond this vale
Have entered age and youth.

Blest are the generations gone,
And blest be these to-day
Who, with the heavenly armor on,
Still watch and fight and pray.

The loving lives in all thy past,
Thy lives still loving now,
Thy heritage in them stands fast,
And from thine ancient vow.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

HON. MOSES T. STEVENS.
Historical Address.
REV. CHARLES NOYES, Present Minister, 1884.

HYMNS.

Written for the occasion by REV. HOBART CLARK, Plainfield, N. J.
Tune: Duke Street.

To England, as to Haran, came,
A voice that spoke the stern decree:
"Go forth, and I will bless thy name;
And bless earth's families through thee."

"A nation great shalt thou become;
With the right truth and right abide;
In freedom shalt thou find a home,
For thee and me, beyond the tide."

Obedient to the heavenly word,
True Abrams of the Saxon race,
Thy voice, by faith, our fathers heard;
By faith they found the promised place.

We thank thee, Lord, for thy command:
We thank thee for that pious trust
Which brought them bravely to our land;
We thank thee for their hallowed dust.

O Thou whose promises are sure,
Grant that their sons may ever live
In freedom, made by faith secure,
Strong in that faith which freedom gives.

At the conclusion, Hon. Moses T. Stevens invited all present to repair to the vestry below where a liberal feast, prepared by the parish folk, was served by Caterer Tanner of Haverhill. Covers were laid for about 290 guests. The blessing was asked by Rev. Wm. E. Gibbs of the Universalist Church, Lawrence. The discussion of the feast was a refreshing hour to all, and its preparation was evidence of the bounteous hospitality of our people.

At half-past one o'clock an increased audience listened to the afternoon exercises.

Tune, Hymnel.

HYMNS—"CITY OF GOD." REV. SAM'L JOHNSON.
City of God, how broad and far
Outspread the walls sublime!
The true, thy chartered freemen are,
Of every age and clime.

One holy Church, one Army strong,
One steadfast high intent;
One working hand, one harvest song,
One King omnipotent!

How purely hath thy speech come down
From man's primeval youth!
How grandly hath thine empire grown,
Of Freedom, Love, and Truth!

In vain the surges' angry shock,
In vain the drifting sands,
Unharm'd, upon the Eternal Rock,
The Eternal City stands.

Addresses by Dr. William Everett, of Quincy, Hollis R. Bailey, Esq., of Boston; Rev. S. C. Beane, of Newburyport; and others.

DOXOLOGY.

BENEDICTION. REV. CHAS. NOYES.
SENT LETTERS OF REGRET.

Letters expressive of regret at being unable to attend or assist in the exercises were received from: Rev. E. E. Hale, Boston; Dr. Howard Osgood, Rochester, N. Y.; E. P. Dodge, Newburyport; J. H. Clifford, New York; Geo. T. Clark, Kalamazoo, Mich.; J. Ward Dean, Boston; Geo. Crosswell Cressey, Salem; Rev. Mr. Stewart, Lynn; Rev. George Batchelor, Boston; C. A. Allen, Bridgewater; Rev. T. A. Field, Andover.

REV. CHARLES NOYES.

The historical features of the church were ably presented by Rev. Charles Noyes, who fittingly eulogized the character and work of several of the early pastors from the pioneer Woodbridge to the close of Bailey Loring, the valued services of the more recent ministers being comparatively within the easy recollection of the people. The discourse was a careful tracing, step by step, of the progress of the society from its early organization to its present condition. He also referred to the bequests of the late Wm. Johnson, William Peters, Ward Noyes and others, to the society.

DR. WILLIAM EVERETT

made an eloquent address for the occasion and expressed his pleasure of being a descendant of our people. He paid graceful tributes to the gifted Phillips and Brooks and other families who have made the name of the North Parish revered and honored. He said that the New England Academy was an institution distinctively its own. Time was, when "the little red schoolhouse" was a pretty good thing, but he hoped that we had something better now in the town and city schools. He contrasted the Andover and Princeton Theology.

REV. S. C. BEANE

of Newburyport, the pastor who has been settled for the longest time in Essex County, a period of thirty years, made an pleasing address. The day was one of interest to him in that he was only six removes from the pioneer Woodbridge. The church ought to stand for the idea that there was no need of priest or prelate standing between the bible and God. He referred to the most noted men of the past and included those of Johnson, the eloquent Parker, Haskell, Edward Wilson, Ephraim Clapp, Dabney, Peter Osgood, J. Goldbrook and others. His allusion to the fact that Prof. Park of Andover being pointed out to him, when he was a lad of 15 years, as being the "arch heretic" of the day was an incident which amused the audience. Andover theology he said was advancing.

REV. MR. SHIPMAN

of the South Church, Andover, said that the South Parish was glad to unite with the North Parish in the anniversary of the occasion, because Andover was the eldest daughter of a mother of several children. Mr. Shipman's remarks were concise, pithy, and well shaped.

HOLLIS R. BAILEY, ESQ.

of Cambridge, a North Andover son, and one well versed in the history of the town and its people, a thorough student, represented the laymen and made a very finished and scholarly address which was listened to with intense interest. His production included: 1st. Events prior to Oct. 25, 1645; 2nd. Convention at Rowley; 3rd. Persons present of note; Thos. Dudley aged 69, Rev. Nathaniel Ward, age 67, Simon Bradstreet, age 42, Annie Bradstreet, age 33, Rev. Thomas Parker, age 50, Rev. Jas. Noyes, age 37, Ezekiel Rogers, Rowley; Nathaniel Rogers, Ipswich; John Woodbridge, age 32, John Ward, age 39. 4th. Persons present not of note; Benj. Woodbridge, Osgood, Frye, Holt, Blake, Stevens, Poor, Richard and James Bailey. 5th. The exercises, Sermon, Covenant, Confession of Faith. 6th. Tribute to the Earnestness and Fidelity of the noted men.

Mr. Bailey's carefully prepared and studied speech was delivered from memory. Other speakers were Revs. Henry Elbert Barnes, D. D., Mr. W. H. Baldwin, President of the Y. M. C. A., Boston, and Mr. A. H. Hagopian, tutor in Robert College, Constantinople, who made a very complimentary speech in regard to the town and its people. He made reference to the Armenian Church, which dates to apostolic times, according to tradition and history, and that nation was the first to set up the cross of Christ. His pleasing remarks were well received by the interested audience.

NOTES.

The oldest person present was the venerable Moses C. Tyler of Salem, who entered upon his 90th birthday last May. One of the interesting curiosities was a copy of a sermon, prepared and delivered at Andover on a public Thanksgiving in Massachusetts Bay, by the Rev. William Symmes, Dec. 1, 1768. It was reproduced in Salem in 1769. This ancient copy is the property of Mr. Osgood Carleton, Yonkers, N. Y.

The solid silver communion service, a part of which was purchased by the parish and the remainder presented by various persons between the dates of 1724 and 1801, was open to the view and admiration of the congregation.

The auditorium was attractively decorated, palms and ferns being placed on either side of the pulpit and a pretty floral design pendant from the centre of the desk. Autumn foliage with field asters beautified the interior of the vestry, while banquet tables were adorned with garden and field blossoms.

Town Sued for $4000.

Charles Wilcox, on account of alleged injury to person and property caused sometime since by a defect in the road near Cato's woods, has entered suit through the firm of DeCourcy & Coulson to recover the sum of $4000 from the town.

The Democrats of town assembled in caucus Friday evening, and in the absence of the chairman, A. L. Fernandes, who states that he had resigned from the Town Committee, the meeting was called to order by S. D. Stevens. Mr. Stevens was chosen chairman and J. F. Barnum secretary.

The number present indicated that there was but little interest taken in politics this year, and the "half hour" required by law gave ample time for all present who desired to cast his ballot, without undue haste, and none were crowded out.

The delegates chosen were as follows:
State.—Moses T. Stevens, A. P. Chickering, Peter Holt, Jr., P. P. Daw.
Senatorial.—S. D. Stevens, J. A. Ellison, Maurice Herbert, Charles Shedd.
Representative.—W. F. Kelley, F. E. Wall, A. L. Fernandes, G. H. Perkins.
District Attorney.—Nathaniel Stevens, A. P. Chickering, E. J. Kelley, M. Bolton.
County.—E. A. Fuller, John Clark, W. F. Kelley, J. A. Morgan.
Councillor.—W. J. Toohy, J. F. Barnum, M. E. Bolton, J. A. Morrissey.
Town Committee.—S. D. Stevens, A. L. Fernandes, P. P. Daw, E. E. Bolton, J. Morrissey.

Installation.
Olivet Chapter 3915 of the Epworth League will install their newly elected officers Tuesday evening in the Methodist Church. The sister societies of South Lawrence, Bradford, and the Y. P. S. C. E. are expected to be present. Rev. J. M. Leonard has been invited to deliver an address. A reception will be held in the vestry at the close of the recognition service.
